REFUSED TO DISMISS

The United States Supreme Court Denies the Motion of Attorney-General.

SUFFRAGE SUITS HANG ON Old Cases Will be Held Over Until the Others Are Heard and Appealed.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 29.—The Supreme Court today refused to entertain the motion of Attorney-General Anderson to dismiss the cases of Jones and Selden vs. Governor Montague. These are the cases which involve the suffrage question in the Virginia Constitution. The court assured the attorney that the cases would soon be reached on the docket and would be heard on their merits. The cases are expected to be heard some time in March.

These are the cases heard here before Chief Justice Fuller and Justice Wadhill, which Mr. Frank W. Christian appeared with the Attorney-General for the Governor and the State Board of Supervisors. It will be remembered that the decision in that case was for the State, on the ground of jurisdiction, and that the plaintiffs appealed the case to the United States Supreme Court. Since that time nothing has been heard of the case.
Mr. John S. Egleston, assistant to the Attorney-General, stated last night that Major Anderson had made the motion merely with a view of getting rid of the case, which has been hanging on for some time. The refusal of the Supreme Court to entertain the motion to dismiss has no particular significance, and is about what was expected.

WILL ALL COME UP TOGETHER.
It is believed that these cases are being deferred by Captain Wise until those of Edgar Poe Lee, Brickhouse and others, now pending in the lower court here, are disposed of. A time was recently set for taking up these latter cases, but Mr.
Wise wrote just before the date asking for a further postponement. Since then nothing has been heard of them. The Attorney-General has attached no special importance to either of these suits. The fact that the Jones-Selden case was decided adversely to the petitioners by Chief Justice Fuller and Judge Wadhill, and that the opinion was so clearly favorable to the State's contention, gives the State's confidence that the Supreme Court can only affirm the lower court.

award the contract for making it to Mr.
Valentine upon the recommendation of were raised together in North Carolina.

be in the city yesterday, and it was thought he went to sleep, and upon awakening found he had left the depot and attempted to jump, when he was struck.

months ago he worked here at the Locomo-friends in this city. At the time he board-
